The court notes that a status report was filed indicating that the parties were at an impasse on some discovery matters and the defense is requesting a briefing on the matter.

The defense notes that it will be filing a motion to compel matters such as material related to surveillance, communications as to the co-defendant, cooperator information, etc. This information is needed in anticipation of filing pretrial motions.

The government notes that the defendant's requests were over broad. The government has provided as much as possible under Rule 16(b). Any information viewed as outside that scope has not been provided.

Based on the information provided, the court will allow the defendant to file his motion to compel by 1/5/18. The government shall file its response by 1/19/18. Any reply is to be filed by 1/26/18. Once the briefing is completed, the court will review and, either make a ruling in writing or have the parties appear by phone and rule on the motion at that time. The court makes a finding under the Speedy Trial Act. The period of time from today until 1/26/18 is deemed excludable.
